15 Unpolarised light is incident normally on a linear polarizer P and subsequently on a second linear polarizer Q as shown below.

Which graph best represents the relationship between the emergent light intensity $I_{emerge}$ and the angle of rotation of Q about the axis of light transmission $\theta$?

A

B

C

D