

13 Which of the following conditions is necessary for observable interference?

A The distance between the sources and the screen must be integer multiple of wavelengths.

B The sources must be coherent.

C The amplitudes of the two waves must be exactly the same.

D The waves used for interference must be polarised.

