

- 2 Five balls are dropped from a vertical height interval of x equidistant from each other as shown below.

The five balls are dropped at the same time.

Which of the following statements describes the time intervals between successive hits on the ground by each ball?

- A The time intervals are always zero.
- B The time intervals are always equal.
- C The time intervals decreases.
- D The time intervals increases.