

- 11 Many highway entrance and exit roads are circular and designed for cars moving at 50 km h^{-1} .

To design a similar road for a speed of 100 km h^{-1} the engineers should increase the radius of the circular section by a factor of

- A $\sqrt{2}$ B 2 C 3 D 4