

- 5 A man is skiing down a slope with constant speed.

According to Newton's third law, which force makes an action–reaction pair with the weight of the man?

- A the friction from the slope
- B the normal contact force from the slope
- C the gravitational force on the Earth due to the man
- D the sum of normal contact force and friction from the slope

