

- 6 Which statement about energy is not correct?
- A Energy is never lost but it may be transferred between different forms.
  - B In an inelastic collision, the total energy is constant.
  - C The efficiency of a system is the ratio of the useful energy output to the total energy input.
  - D When a machine does work, friction reduces the total energy.