

16 Which statement is true of a lightly-damped system?

- A Increased damping will decrease the frequency of the system.
- B Increased damping will not affect the period of the system.
- C The amplitude of the system remains constant over time.
- D The period of the system increases over time.