

20 In which of the following cases does an electric field do positive work on a charged particle?

A

A positive charge moves to a point of higher electric potential.

B

A negative charge moves opposite to the direction of the electric field.

C

A positive charge completes one circular path around a stationary positive charge.

D

A negative charge moves perpendicular to the electric field between two parallel and oppositely charged plates.