19 Monochromatic light of wavelength 490 nm falls normally on a diffraction grating that has 6×10^5 lines per metre. Which one of the following is correct?

A The first order is observed at angle of diffraction of 12°.

B The third and higher orders are not produced.

C A grating with more lines per metre could produce more orders.

D Total number of maximas produced is 7.