

11	C Option A: Geostationary satellites can only be found above the equator Option B: The linear speed of the geostationary satellite has to be greater as it is further away from Earth's centre and has the same angular speed as Earth Option D: Geostationary satellites travel in the same direction as Earth's rotation and that is from west to east.
12	B