

	K will give m/s K^{-1} .
2	C In the calculation of fractional uncertainty of $3X$, the coefficient 3 will cancel out, also, for calculation of uncertainty, we always add and not subtract because the uncertainty should increase with more terms involved rather than decrease, so the final answer is $x + 2y$.
3	A