

2 B Conceptual Question. Mean value should be close to the true value, while experimental values should have a large spread.