

24 (A)

N-pole of magnet experience a force in the same direction of field line.

S-pole of magnet experience a force in the opposite direction of field line.

Magnet will turn anticlockwise.

Field line of closer spacing indicates higher magnetic field strength. Force at S > force at N. So component of resultant force to the left and magnet accelerates left.

25 (C)