

19.	Ans: A Test charge is introduced at a point to determine the electric field strength and it should not alter the electric field at that point.

