

15. Ans: B

High resolving power means objects close together will still be well resolved. To improve the resolving power, the Raleigh's criterion angle θ should be made smaller.

Since $\sin\theta = \frac{\lambda}{a}$, θ can be reduced by making a , the slit width, bigger.

16 Ans: A