

		$= -3.9 \sim -6 \text{ J}$
20	C	With the electric field pointing downwards, the electric force acting on the $+Q$ and $-Q$ is downwards and upwards respectively. That would lead to a resultant force of zero and a resultant torque in the anti-clockwise direction.
21	A	Work done $= \Delta EPE = q\Delta V$