

- 7 The gravitational field strength at a point at a distance r away from the point mass decreases with increasing r . Hence the spacing between the equipotential line should increase with increasing r , as $g = -\frac{d\phi}{dr}$.

Answer: B

$$0 \leq \sqrt{1 - m^2} \leq 1$$