21 Four point charges of magnitude +2*Q*, +Q, –2*Q*, and –Q are fixed at the corners of a rigid square, resting on a frictionless surface.

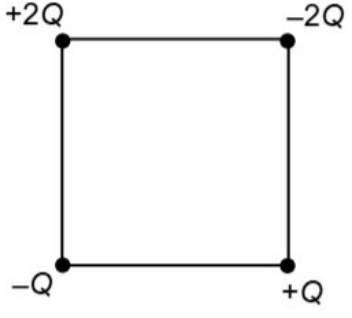

A uniform electric field is applied in the direction from left to right in the plane of the surface.

In which situation will the square be in equilibrium?

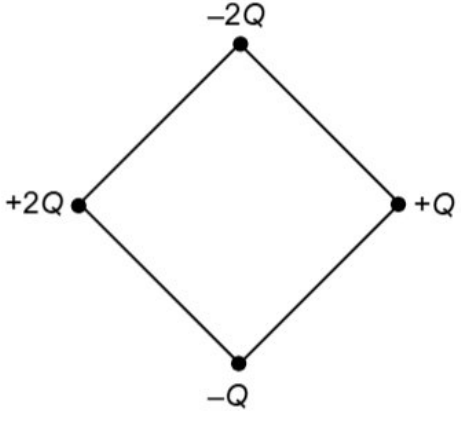

A

B

C

D

