24 The North pole of a bar magnet is pushed into a coil of wire from end X. The maximum movement of the meter needle is 10 units to the left.

In a similar set up, the South pole of the magnet is pushed into a coil of wire from end X at half the speed.

What is the maximum movement of the meter needle?

A less than 10 units to the left

B less than 10 units to the right

C more than 10 units to the left

D more than 10 units to the right