

- 29 In the Rutherford Scattering experiment, a thin gold foil is bombarded with α -particles. Some α -particles are deflected between $0^\circ < \theta < 90^\circ$.

This observation provided information about the

- A high density of the gold nucleus
- B positive charge of the gold nucleus
- C atom consists of mainly empty spaces
- D small size of the electrons compared to the nucleus