

6

$$\overline{\Delta p} = \overline{p}_{\text{final}} - \overline{p}_{\text{initial}}$$

$\overline{\Delta p}$ cannot be of magnitude $2p$ unless it is initially a vertical drop

Option B is for an inelastic collision.

