

The gradient is $-GM/r^2$, where M is the mass of the planet.

13 Ans: A

The gravitational force is always perpendicular to the velocity of the Moon, and therefore no work is done.

Alternatively, in 1 complete orbit, the Moon does not experience any change in its KE or GPE, thus there is no work done on the Moon.

14 Ans: A