

c a b

2. Ans: B

Area under an acceleration time graph is the change in velocity. Change in velocity from time $t = 0$ to the time at B is the largest because the area under the graph is largest. Therefore the magnitude of the velocity at B is the greatest since the object starts from rest.