

|     |   |                                                                                                                                             |
|-----|---|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|     |   | be either a positive maximum or negative maximum at $t = 0$ .                                                                               |
| 16. | A | Max force = $m a_{\max} = m \omega^2 x_0$$= 20 \times 10^{-3} (3\pi)^2 (6 \times 10^{-3}) = 1.07 \times 10^{-2} \approx 0.01 \text{ N}$ |
| 17. | D | Wavelength of wave                                                                                                                          |