

19 B

Diffraction is the most pronounced when the size of the opening is comparable to the size of the wavelength. Option B is correct because halving the frequency means doubling the wavelength to 1.0 m which is the size of the doorway.

20 B