

in the third quadrant, $\phi = 180^\circ + 60^\circ = 240^\circ$

- 19 D The electric field within the conductor will be zero (since no net charge/equipotential inside a conductor) while the external regions will still have a uniform electric field pointing from positive to negative plate.

20 B $R = \rho l / A$ $R = V / I$