27 The wave function for an electron trapped in an infinite square well is shown in the figure below.

At which position(s) is the probability of locating the electron the highest?

A Q only

B Q and S only

C P, Q and R only

D P, R and T only

Ans: B

Squaring the wave function will give the probability density function. The positions of highest probability of locating the electron would be Q and S.