

8 D When $T = (D + W_2)$, the net force on the lift is 0.

Hence by Newton's first law, the lift must have a constant velocity. If it was originally at rest, it will be at rest (constant velocity of 0).

9 D Negative work is done by the unthrust on the cylinder