28 Which statement best describes the 'electron cloud' in an atom?

A A shell of negative charge at a fixed radius.

B A region where the electron's charge is uniformly distributed.

C The path the electron follows around the nucleus.

D A region where the probability of finding the electron is high.