

Points in alternate segments of a standing wave are in anti-phase (have a phase difference of λ).

Q14 Ans: B

Since the container is sealed, volume remains constant. Hence, average distance between the gas molecules does not change.

Q15 Ans: D