

Answer: B

- 19 Points P and Q are at the same distance away from the positive point charge at the centre of the circle. Points P and Q are on the same equipotential line. Hence, there is no change in potential moving a unit positive charge from P to Q, resulting in no work done by the external agent.

Answer: A

20 $P = I^2 r$