

25 When the bar magnet is falling, the rate of decrease of magnetic flux linkage when leaving the coil will be larger than the rate of increase of magnetic flux linkage when approaching the coil. Therefore the galvanometer will deflect to the left by more than 10 units.

7

Answer: B

$$20 \int d\Phi$$