15 Which statement is true of a lightly-damped system?

A Increasing the damping will decrease the frequency of the system.

B Increasing the damping will not affect the period of the system.

C The amplitude of the system remains constant over time.

D The period of the system increases over time.