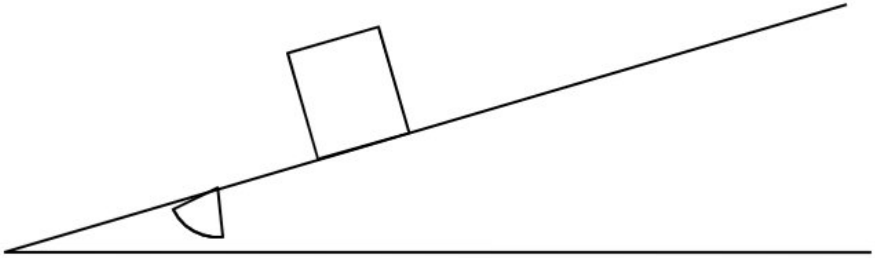
3 A block of mass m is placed on an inclined plane at an angle θ to the horizontal.



If the maximum frictional force that can exist between the block and the plane is equal to a quarter of the weight of the block, what is the maximum angle θ the plane can be raised before the block starts to slip?

A 14° B 30° C 60° D 76°