

- 11 Which one of the following diagrams shows the variation of gravitational force F on a point mass and gravitational potential energy U of the mass at a distance r from another point mass?

Ans: C

$F = -dU/dr$ and since r is usually large, F is numerically smaller.