

Q25 Ans: A

Mean power is independent of frequency and proportional to peak voltage square. Thus with new peak voltage to be half of the original one, mean power will be $\frac{1}{4}$ the original P