

$$A_{P_0} = 160$$

- 30 B Only α decay results in a change in mass number, and each α decay causes the mass number to decrease by 4. Hence the difference in the mass number of the end product and the parent nuclide must be a multiple of 4.